

Shetland Fisheries Training Centre Trust trading as the NAFC Marine Centre UHI (NAFC) is registered with the Information Commissioners Office (ICO) under registration number 26072360, as required by the Data Protection Act 1998.

The NAFC is General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) compliant and it collects, processes and stores data about its students, staff, contractors and other parties in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998.

The NAFC is committed to ensuring that the processing of personal data is only undertaken in the legitimate operation of NAFC's business, for the purposes of running its business, administering educational programmes and providing certification or awards.

Who Sees Your Personal Data?

The personal data that you supply to the NAFC is held securely and may be processed by our contracted third parties and partner colleges: Train Shetland, Shetland College UHI and the Highlands and Islands University (UHI).

We will only share your personal data with third parties where it is necessary:

- Where we are obliged to do so by law or regulations;
- For reporting purposes (e.g. The Scottish Funding Council (SFC));
- To awarding bodies for registrations, accreditation and certification purposes (e.g. SQA; City and Guilds);
- To employers and other organisations who provide trainees with financial support;

The NAFC may also provide limited personal data to contracted third parties to enable provision of services for the purposes of teaching, learning, administrative support and IT provisioning. This includes, but is not exclusive to Microsoft for email accounts and CollabCo for access to the student portal.

Our Undertaking

- Your data will be processed fairly, lawfully and transparently.
- We will not use your data for any purpose other than those we specifically collected it for.
- Whether we collect your personal data verbally, by paper form or on line, we will only ever collect the data we need to perform the task you are requesting and no more.
- We will only keep your data for as long it is necessary.
- We will ensure that your data is kept safe.
- Your data will not be transferred outside the European Economic Area without your consent.

Your Rights Under GDPR

- Your data should be correct and up to date and if it's not, you have the right to have it corrected.
- In some circumstances you may have the right to be "forgotten" which means that your data could be deleted.
- You can object to how your data is being processed or ask us to restrict its processing. We would have to take into consideration our legal, statutory and business obligations before we agreed to make any changes, however, we would consider it seriously and explain transparently if where we can't oblige.
- If you have given your consent, you can change your mind.
- You have the right to access the data that NAFC holds on you. If you request a copy of this data, you have the right to use it elsewhere.

The NAFC will periodically review and update their Privacy Statement to provide improved clarity, ensure processing fairness and keep abreast of any changes in the law.

If you have any problems regarding your personal data or wish to exercise any of your rights, by making a data request, our Data Protection Officer can be contacted at nafcdpo@uhi.ac.uk

If you are unhappy with our handling of your data you can complain to the ICO.
